Medidata Rave Clinical Views Overview

Instructor Led Training Course Agenda

Course Description: The purpose of the Clinical Views feature in Rave is to provide users with a method to browse up-to-date subject data entered into Rave through a simple, tabular format. During the Clinical Views Overview training, attendees will learn what clinical views are and how they are built and impacted by project changes. Additionally, attendees will learn how to configure clinical view projects, schedules, and settings.

Approximate Duration[1]: 2.5 hours

Time	Topic
2.5 hours	Introduction
	What are Clinical Views?
	How are Clinical Views Used?
	What do Clinical Views Look Like?
	Clinical Views: Dictionaries
	Data Dictionaries
	Normalized vs Denormalized
	How Clinical Views are Built
	Clinical Views and Deleted Fields
	Rave Standard Report Performance
	How PIP Impacts Clinical Views
	Clinical Views Scheduler
	Clinical Views Performance
	Managing Clinical Views Performance and Data Latency
	Clinical Views Settings
	Coding Dictionary Hierarchies
	SAS on Demand Performance
	Review
	Question and Answer

---

[1] Duration listed is approximated, and does not reflect activities, simulations or assessments