What's in a Profile

eLearning Course Outline

Course Description: This course provides an overview of headers, flags, tables, and timelines, including how to create each type of element. It also covers the techniques for changing the layout, viewing profiles included in a study, and creating a design report. In addition, the learner will discover how to set important dates and choose the types of data patient profiles will use to display results

Approximate Duration: 10 Min

Module	Topic
What's In a Profile? (10 min)	Objectives
	Basic Navigation • The iMedidata Portal • The Landing Page • Selecting a Study • Choosing to Create a Design
	Creating Elements
	Choosing a Layout Accessing Profiles in a Study
	Understanding Design Reports
	Date Options
	Cluster Variables
	Limits
	Data Types
Summary	Summary