

Rave Site Payments – The Industry’s Only Global Payment Technology Driven by EDC

Real Time Reporting and Transparency

Rave Site Payments is a unified, cloud-based technology that makes site payments as easy as payroll. Your accounting department doesn't skip paychecks or miscalculate wages and taxes, and now your clinical finance team doesn't have to either.

Rave Site Payments is a smart solution—it knows when site staff completes their work in your electronic data capture (EDC) system and pays them for that work right away. Sounds simple? It is. With Rave Site Payments your EDC system works behind the scenes to trigger payment calculation and assemble cost data when a site's work is completed. It's the industry's only solution that's driven by your EDC system out-of-the box, a distinct advantage that helps life sciences companies keep sites happy and engaged.
