

Rave EDC is the Gold Standard Electronic Data Capture solution

Medidata is the World's Leading Innovator in EDC

Rave EDC is rated the #1 Most Preferred EDC Provider and the #1 Most Recently Used EDC

— EDC Benchmarking and Market Dynamics (5th Ed.),
Industry Standard Research, June 2023.

Rave EDC - Unified on the Medidata Platform

Rave EDC is built on the powerful Medidata Platform, the industry's leading unified platform dedicated to clinical research. With Rave EDC, all study data is centralized in a single location, creating a single source of truth across your entire portfolio. Selecting additional Medidata Platform products - such as RTSM, eCOA, eConsent, and Imaging - increases the power of Rave EDC by connecting your critical applications, together, in the same data environment. At the same time, the Medidata Platform gives you the flexibility to connect with non-Medidata applications.

Key Study Conduct Solutions unified with Rave EDC

Rave Coder: Precise, consistent, faster medical coding with up-to-date dictionaries and unified workflow with Rave EDC.

Rave Safety Gateway: Accelerated safety data transmission with automated collection of adverse events from Rave EDC and transmission to your safety system in ICH E2B format.

Medidata TSDV (Targeted Source Data Verification): Focused monitoring drives attention to critical data and erroneous issues faster.

“The best qualities of Rave EDC are how user-friendly [it is] for the sites to enter data..., how the query management is very efficient, and [the ease of] getting the data out.”

- Vijay Chundru, Senior Director, EDC Programming Team,
Global Clinical Data Operations, Jazz Pharmaceuticals

What Makes Rave EDC the Most Preferred EDC Application?

- Medidata’s unparalleled experience and expertise in implementing and supporting EDC
- More sites and study teams have experience with Rave EDC than any other EDC solution
- Flexibility for mid-study changes
- Scalability, robustness, and data security
- Real-time data availability and ease of data extracts
- Excellent technical support and training
