About Us

Founded in 2011, we are an End-to-End Full-Service CRO Provider, located in Germany. With over 45 highly experienced employees, we cover the DACH region in phase I to Phase IV drug and medical device trials for various indications.

Within the preclinical phases of drug and medical device development, we support our clients to achieve their individual decisive milestones earlier and more efficiently.

Full-Service Sponsor and CRO

palleos healthcare is one of the very few small to mid-size players in the DACH market offering the full range of CRO and Sponsor Services with a deep and profound knowledge in drug & medical device development.
